

The new 60 meter band should allow General and higher license classes to operate in that particular spectrum. This is due to the fact that these are the hard working operators who will be the first to help in an emergency. I also feel the power limit should be 1500 watts PEP.